D & M Employees Guests at Elaborate Yule Party

The hum of whirling wheels and the drone of turning lathes were silenced at the D. & M. Machine Works last Saturday afternoon; and within the brick walls of the busy hive of industry rang laughter and fun making. It was the annual Christmas party tendered D. & M. employees by Frank Dalton and J. W. McQuaid, proprietors of the plant.

Following a full course turkey dinner, W. E. Shawger, superintendent of the rubber department, presided as toastmaster, and introduced a number of entertainers from the Richard & Martin School of Dancing, San Pedro. Tap dancing, fancy dancing, songs and instrumental music by McPherson's Theatre 8-piece orchestra made up a highly enjoyable program.

A special accordion number was given by Miss Betty Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton. Miss Dalton thrilled her audience with her exceptionally well-played selections, attained in only two months' study of the accordion.

Fifty-eight places were arranged at the banquet table, and under each employee's plate was an envelope bearing the Christmas wishes of Messrs. Dalton and Mc-

Quaid and containing a $10 bill. Besides the officers and employees, the following were guests: Dr. J. S. Lancaster, J. W. Post, Dr. George P. Shidler, Henry Ulbricht, City Attorney J. R. Jensen and L. B. Kelsey.

MRS. DALTON ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. F. Dalton was hostess when she entertained members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club with a dessert bridge at her home on Gramery avenue this week. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree accented the decorative note used throughout. Awards for bridge were received by Mrs. Lillian Shriner and Mrs. L. L. Fordice, while Mrs. Jeanet Maxfield received a consolation. Included were Mesdames John Dennis, W. West, J. O. Moore, May Siedeborn, Fred Knudson, R. A. McFarland, L. L. Fordice, Jeanet Maxfield, J. W. McQuaid, W. H. Stanger and Lillian Shriner.

R. N. A. NOTES

The regular business meeting of Royal Neighbors of America will be held at their club rooms, corner Torrance boulevard and Fortola streets, Tuesday evening, January 3. All members are urged to attend.

HYDES ENTERTAIN

Among the delightfully appointed Christmas dinner parties was that with which Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Hyde entertained at their home Christmas day. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boardman of Los Angeles, Christmas favors and small red tapers added a decorative note to the dining table.

MRS. QUAYLE HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Effie Quayle provided the incentive for a luncheon Tuesday which was arranged as a surprise for her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. G. Barkdull. Covers were placed for the honoree, Mrs. Quayle, and her daughters, Mrs. N. R. Bernard of Los Angeles, Mrs. Stella Shipp, Mrs. Roland Quayle, both of Long Beach, Miss Julia Quayle and Mrs. Barkdull. They were joined in the evening by N. R. Bernard, Roland, Jesse, Russell and Carl Quayle and Mr. Barkdull. A turkey dinner was served at a table decorated with red chrysanthemums and lighted tapers. A tower birthday cake was cut by the honoree. Mrs. Quayle was then presented with a chest of silver as a gift from the group.

TORRANCE RELIEF TO MEET

The regular meeting of Torrance Relief Society will be held at the Relief Headquarters, 1803 Cabrillo avenue, Thursday, January 5, at 9:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

MRS. COLLINS IS HOSTESS

Mrs. Caroline Collins entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home at 2114 Sonoma avenue, Tuesday afternoon. Her guests were the ladies who actively assisted with the Red Cross drive recently completed. Covers were placed for Mesdames A. A. Strom, C. D. Lowen, T. T. Babbit, L. W. Balston, W. J. Neelands, Nina Stuart, Douglas B. Collins, Floyd Evans and the hostess. At bridge Mrs. Ralston received an award for high score, while Mrs. Douglas Collins received a consolation.

CHRISTMAS PARTY IS ENJOYED

Miss Joy Fossum was a delightful hostess when she entertained at her home on Cota avenue Thursday evening. Games and dancing were enjoyed. Included were Misses Alice Burger, Margaret Floyd, Dorothy Jensen, and Kenneth Fess, Jimmy Miller, Thomas Rogers, Gale Traver and the hostess.

CHRISTMAS BREAKFAST PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wheaton at 1228 Arlington avenue provided the background for a delightful breakfast party Christmas morning when covers were placed for 21, including members of the family and their guests. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Don Wheaton and four children of Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wheaton and son, Gary, of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. William Elsiech of Athens, Will Wheaton and Ted and Bud Stromberger of Los Angeles, Miss Dorothy Voisinet, Mrs. Olive Lee and sons, George and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton and daughter, Jean.

FAMILY REUNION IS ENJOYED

The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. H. A. Green and little Bobby Lee Suttle furnished the incentive for a delightful party and family reunion at the Green home, 816 Cota avenue, Christmas Day. Following dinner, cards furnished entertainment. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Stiedel and baby, Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Snook, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Snook and daughter, Charlotte, all of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Frilot and daughter, Barbara, of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell McClung of Gardena, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Suttle and son, Bobby Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Green and son, Raymond Stiedel, all of Torrance.

R. N. A. PARTY TONIGHT

Mrs. W. T. Walker will entertain with a bunco party at her home, 2008 Atlantic avenue, at 8 o'clock Thursday, December 29, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. Her guests will be Royal Neighbors. All members are cordially invited to attend. Especially nice prizes have been selected.

BABCOCKS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Among the attractively appointed dinner parties Christmas day was that with which Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Babcock entertained at their home on Gramery avenue. At a table decorated with poinsettias and holly, covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bretton of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Babcock and son of Los Angeles, Mrs. J. S. Babcock, Leonard Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brooks and children of Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morford and Ed Morford.

DINNER PARTY AT FORDICE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fordice were hosts when they entertained with a dinner party at their home on Marina avenue Christmas day. At a table attractively centered with a small Christmas tree and poinsettias, covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fordice and children of Inglewood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sana and children, Glenn Robinson, Mrs. Emma York, Kathryn and Bobby Fordice and the hosts.

WOODMEN TO ATTEND JUBILEE

Instead of the regular M. W. A. meeting which was to have been held Thursday, January 5, members of Torrance camp will attend the golden jubilee celebration at Culver City. The group will leave their club rooms here at 6:30 o'clock that evening and go directly to R. K. O. studio at Culver City. An excellent entertainment has been arranged for the occasion.

DINNER PARTY AT LEECH HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leach at 1680 Anapola avenue provided the setting for the annual get-together party for employees of Bank of America and their wives. Covers were placed at the dining table for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reinertson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haarer, Sam Neely, Mrs. Ruth Rogers and the hosts. Bridge furnished entertainment for the evening. Awards for high score were received by Mrs. Haarer and J. W. Leach, while Mrs. Rogers received a consolation.

LANGUAGE PUPILS ARE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Clifford F. Boyer was hostess recently when she entertained at her home members of the Spanish and French classes conducted by her at Torrance evening high school. Seasonal decorations were used and the entertainments were a number of Spanish and French songs, a cappella with Miss Wanda Stachowicz, leading in the group. Dancing and bridge were enjoyed for the balance of the evening. Included were Mesdames Sylvia Lane Nelson, Nelle R. French, Misses Helen Berry, Marie Scallen, Wanda Stachowicz, and Messrs. Don DeWitt, L. O. Stevens, M. Sands, Rudolph Huber, James Anderson, Clinton Dorrington, Carl Gramling and John O'Connor.

POLLY ANNS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The home of Mrs. O. W. Hudson on Andree avenue provided a delightful background for the afternoon party with the entertainments of the members of the Polly Anns Club Friday. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree, lighted red tapers and nut cups containing chocolate Santa Clauses all added a seasonal note. Awards for bridge were received by Mrs. W. C. Dolley and Mrs. W. C. Andrus, while Mrs. John Guyan received a consolation. Included were Mesdames W. C. Andrus, John Guyan, A. W. Johnson, H. L. Alcorn, F. W. Mineck, Thomas Kendrick, Dunbar, Ernest D. Watson, W. C. Dolley, George Perry and A. W. Weiler.

MADAME BILLINI PRESENTS ROTARY PROGRAM

Members of Torrance Rotary Club and their guests enjoyed an especially fine program presented at the regular luncheon meeting by Madame Teala Billini today. Hugo Kirchofer, nationally famous choral conductor and song leader, was assisted by Miss Bunola Kay, mezzo soprano of KXN fame, who sang two song groups accompanied at the piano by Madame Billini. The delightful musical program was in the nature of a Christmas present tendered to the club by its accompanist.

K. P. PARTY TONIGHT

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters of Torrance and Redondo Beach will hold a card party this evening, Thursday, December 29, at 11 1/2 South California street, Redondo Beach. Everyone is invited to attend. Tallies may be secured at the door.
